Prosecuting Atterney Wolcott was and about the matter and he replied that the justice court act was not yet in print and he had never seen a copy of it. He could not tell whether Justice Herwn is acting according to law or not. In the meantime Justice Brown is drawing $1.200 per year, and the face is criminal cases, heard by him, while the other justices are simply receiving their regular salaries. George it. Whate, who has given much attention to the subject, says there is no doubt but Justice Brown is correct in the position he takes. The justices are entitled to feen in all cases which read final estilement in their courts and to all wriding fees. It is estimated that the fees going to each justice from these sources will amount to $2000 per year, bringing their pay up to $2,000 per year, bringing their pay up to $2,000 per year. The isommittee on ways and means of the council has been notified of the facts in the case and will investigate the law to see who is right and who is wrong. that the justice court act was not yet in

For Her Husband's Death.
Sarah S. Krumer of Lima, Ohio, began suit against the Grand Rapids & Indiana Railroad company for $50,000 daraages for the death of her busband, Otto F. Krumer, who was killed at the Waterico street crossing last March. It will be recombered that Mr. Krumer of Lima, Ohio, and C. L. Grinnell of this city were riding on Waterico street and were struck by a train of six cars, which were kicked across the street. The gate at the crossing was not in working order and the company did not keep a flagman, as required by law. The bill is carefully drawn and contains lifty pages of closely printed matter. For Her Husband's Death.

Jeseph Morrison began suit in the superior court against the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee railroad for $5,000 damsiges. He was thrown down while alighting from a train at the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee depot in this city July 26, 1803, and one of his arms was injured. He claims a sudden starting of the train caused him to fall.

James May was beld for trial by Jus-tice Raven of Nelson township for bur-glary. His bends was fixed at 8000, May is charged by his son-in-law, Jacob Oplis, with stealing a cow from his barn. Frank Field, charged by Mra Alice G. Lockerby with embessling 870 from her, was examined in justice court.

Caroline B. Wilcox was granted a de-eree in foreclosure against Flora E. Quigley in Judge Grove's court.

A warrant is out for John DeRecka for malicious slander. Ignats Skula is the man making the charge. William J. saup was granted a di-orce from Erances Raup by Judge

Catherine Engel was divorced from Charles Engel by Judge Adsit.
